During the unprecedented global health crisis, we hold in our hearts people from all countries. We applaud the efforts of all who have stepped forward to serve, fight and sacrifice. You are the ordinary people who have provided an extraordinary response to the unimaginable. Your efforts are now legend. You are our heroes and heroines.

Challenged and frustrated by the dilemma that a small portion of our population carries the weight and burden of supporting the world – we have searched to find organizations that support their efforts.

As a small gesture, we work remotely and encourage all to do so.

Stay home / stop spread.

Financially we support vulnerable people and communities by offering donations to:
